ethree

Understanding Respect in the Workplace.

About The Course

A self-directed e-learning course allowing you to learn anywhere at any time.
The course takes about 45-60 minutes to complete.
The course includes engaging content and interactive activities to help you fully understand the learning. A handout is provided to capture notes.
Participants who pass the end of program quiz (80% or more) receive a completion certificate.

Pricing

$79.95 per person.
Group discounts may apply

Topics Covered

- The importance of respect in the workplace
- Understanding your impact on others
- Understanding inclusion and acting inclusively
- Understanding unconscious bias and discrimination
- Understanding harassment and violence in the workplace

Course content is in line with Canadian provincial harassment prevention and respectful workplace legislative requirements